

East Jackson Community School District
Internet Contract

I pledge to follow these rules while using the Internet at: at school, home, or elsewhere.
If I violate these rules, I must agree to consequences including, but no limited to:

- A parent call
- Restriction of Internet use
- Internet privileges being revoked
- Discipline according to the student handbook

The specific consequence will be based on the severity of the violation, and determined by my teacher and/or the system administrator.

- I will never give out personal information such as my home address, telephone number, or the name and location of my school without my teacher's permission.
- I will tell my teacher right away if I come across any information that makes me feel uncomfortable.
- I will never send a person my picture or anything else without first checking with my teacher.
- I will always treat people online with respect and treat them as I would like to be treated.
- I will not reply to any messages that are mean or in any way inappropriate. It is not my fault if I get a message like that. If I do, it is my responsibility to tell my teacher.
- I will never view a web site that contains inappropriate material.

*Adapted from the brochure "Child Safety on the Information Superhighway." To receive a FREE copy or for further information on child safety, call National Center for Missing Children at 1-800-843-5678. An online version can be found on the World Wide Web at <http://www.missingkids.org>.

This document is to be used in conjunction with East Jackson Community School's Electronic Information Access and Use Policy.

Revised 8/2011